The name, StarLight Expressions, is my name creation honoring the name of Albert Einstein’s imaginative train of light, which he called, “Starlight Express.” When I came upon the writing sharing that as his name for his body of work in one area, I was dumbfounded, for you see, I had been calling my manuscript of a larger work than this present volume you hold in your hands, The StarLightning Express, for many years prior to my seeing Al’s use of the Starlight Express. As a child, I too imagined and wondered what it would be like to ride at the head of a beam of light to see what was what with the light and all I could see. So, when I came across his use of a term so close to my heart in the name of my manuscript, I decided then and there to name this first book of Lexigram Star Arts as something close to both. This first book was designed to be something easily understood and enjoyed by one and all. I decided I would name this book, StarLight Expressions, by Kathy Onu.

Thank you for reading this book carefully and with a heart open to hope for peace on earth is real. Thank you for telling your friends about it so they can know the power of their heart choices with their actions and their very own words. I hope you enjoy the Star Arts herein, and one word of awareness to you before you venture true ...

Though this book and the printing itsElf is made up of material traveling at near the speed of light and yet acts like a string too small to imagine, please do read the Star Arts as humanly slowly as you can the first time, with full comprehension as you go along. To speed-read a Star Art is not the best way to full cellular understandings, giving no time for the awakenings nor healings nor understandings to percolate and sink in, so to speak, in thy fields of awarenesses, cells included. Cells need a bit of time experiencing a new awareness to know it’s true.

Words of TAWA: June 10th, 2006, Flathead Lake, Montana as shared by Ray Fletcher.
Tawa: Are you acquainted with the words, “a speed reader?”
GL: Yes.
Tawa: What is derived by using that particular choice of action?
GL: Attaining information very, very quickly.
Tawa: Yes. But what is obtained and what is taken or lacking? To pass over too speedily, you receive the word, you receive the thought, but you do not receive the meaning of that action. You are one that must have the meaning so you may give it to others.
GL: Yes, I understand that.
Tawa: Slow down and grasp upon the knowledge.
GL: Okay.
Tawa: Receive joy in your mind.
GL: Practice on feeling the thought forms.
Tawa: Yes.

"The universe is made of stories, not atoms."
Muriel Rukeyser ~ Poet

I hope you enjoy these word stories of the words themselves so much that they bring you joys unending in your creatings of your ever-better stories of your own forevermores.

Again I scribe to you Dear Reader, my Thank You ...

Welcome dear listeners and dear readers for you are now sensing letters in words in sentences that sent sense. Many before you have been deeply moved by these words, allowing for the publication of this very book. This small volume will give you meanings of words in ways you never imagined could be possible, yet, there they be, showing themselves for all with eyes to see and whose heart knowingly hears truth when presented. Becoming aware of these Star Arts, as I call them, you are able to see anew the effects of your words, and the voicings and writings of self and others. So that you may fully enjoy the enclosed Star Arts, I ask you to consider a few thoughts before you venture on to the secrets revealed within words herein. New awarenesses can come as a flash, or they can take a bit of time for the lights to dawn on one. I personally know there are too many secrets revealed herein anyone to fully grasp them all in a few moments, or even a few days, even if enlightened. My best hint to you with this book, no matter your awareness, is to consider making the most of the material by slowly reading each Lexigram unto itsElf, feeling each line to see if it rings true for you, or not. With the Star Arts, I ask you to read each line to the end, then a pause and a ponder as needed to feel the line and then, feel the meaning(s) of the line for a wee bit. Then, move onto the next line of meaning. I offer to you the idea of reading a Lexigram a day, seeing how it affects your perceptions throughout the day. Read AWARENESS and see for yourself over a time if it is true for you and it assists in the healings of sElf and others. Read BREATHEs, taking slow deep rhythmic breaths. Spend a day with the reminder of placing your awareness on the actual breath cycle. Observe your breathing with your focus of attention. During this day, stop by a store and perhaps purchase a simple yoga book that shares how to breathe, and more. Take the Star Art of LAUGHTER to heart for a day, see what it can offer you in new awareness. Go through the Lexigrams, picking out one to read and work with for a time. We do not recommend reading all the Lexigrams in one sitting in one fast reading, nor to read a Lexigram just once. Each Star Art flows uniquely. Please now inhale with awareness. Thank you.

Each and every Lexigram absolutely asks to be read slowly. If you race through a Lexigram, and set it aside, never to be pondered again, you will wonder on the value of the Star Arts for you will see that you have gained little or nothing from your cursory glance. Savor the Lexigrams and they will serve you. The words thmsElves will make the introductions and they ask you only to see if they are ringing true for you, or not. It truly is this simple. Having the new awareness of how a word or name can reveal truths so well hidden does not give you the tools to render a Lexigram. If you desire to learn how to render the art and science of the Lexigram, there are two ways you can do so. Obtain a copy of the book, Linda Goodman’s Star Signs. Chapter 8 is the revealing of her intuitions in the birthing of this art and science. Linda shares her guidelines that apply to the process of rendering a Lexigram with examples. The soft-cover is available in most bookstores for under $10. Until the manuscript, The StarLightning Express : Letters Let Seer See, is published, the other way to learn how to render, or see more Lexigrams, is to go here : http://www.goodworksonearth.org/axiomsom.html From there, follow the links to see all the published axioms. Be aware, Linda made errors in her book, which our site corrects. The StarLightning Express, Letters Let Seer See, The Nature of Lexigram, by Will I Am Francis Schive, is currently being researched and written. On 20150316, the manuscript is as yet unpublished. Last time we counted, it had exactly 444 pages, 162,261 words, with 77 arts and images sharing sweet truths hidden within the words. You may acquire a private printing of the manuscript by making a substantial donation to Good Works On Earth, or you can ask to be notified when the book is published as The StarLightning Express, in print.

Gently share these Star Arts works of art with other Loving folks as you will know to do. Aware, caring, kind and Loving folks light up the room they are in when they see the secrets revealed. Please know that there are those who will not be able to see and experience the sheer power of the words we all use as shown through the lens of the Lexigram. Never try to impress this knowledge upon anyone; to do so will serve neither you nor them. Share it if you wish, and if the person does not or cannot see yet, let them be. Share with Love always for Love’s presence is with and within you forevemore in the grand eternal presents of the nowments, and ... not a soul is ever lost.

Be great in act, as you have been in thought.
- William Shakespeare

Let children walk with Nature, let them see the beautiful blendings and communions of death and life, their joyous inseparable unity, as taught in woods and meadows, plains and mountains and streams of our blessed star, and they will learn that death is stingless indeed, and as beautiful as life. - John Muir

*A person in arrogance sees only what he or she wants to see. One sighted you may say, one cornea. Nor can he or she hear what you are saying. The person in arrogance hears what he or she wants to hear, and they are unwilling to view other's viewpoints. You cannot easily converse with those holding onto their egocic arrogances, they will not allow friendly negotiation, nor give and take, nor compromise. You might want to look up the word grace in a good lexicon for it contains many beautiful meanings. If you have been a creator or creatress of arrogance, the word grace has much to offer. And I do not refer to religious meaning.

In the book, Celestine Prophecy, James Redfield so eloquently describes the magic and beauty of the coincidences ... showing the reader, with words, the truth of the origin and creation and planning of the universe, in the presenting (I SEE) of the coincidences (I See) to our vision ... we need only see. Know this ... the awareness of All That Is supplies us always with what we need ... and we supply the awareness of All That Is with what it is, and this is Love. Changes the living, for the better always. Follow the path with the heart, and look for the iridescent, the beautiful, and the brightness of the energy. This is an inner eye you must be looking to for this sensing of the path to walk. Just because the physical universe street you are looking at with your physical eyes is brightly lit like some gambling casino does not mean it is iridescent in the energy of the Love Awareness All That Is energy. No Sir E! Seek the Loving, seek those who have their heart in the open. This will lead you to the serendipitous coincidences with ease, always and forevermore.

ONE DOES SEE

Entitled:

ONE ROSE IS RISEN IN I
The DEPRESSION Lexigram refers to sowing seeds in sod and dining on sown seeds risen. This refers to the diet. We are what we eat and what we think. Everything we put into the body is part of the diet. A secret to good health and hale Spirit is the diet. If you smoke, this is part of your diet. If you drink alcohol, this is part of your diet. If you eat nothing but man’s processed foods, this is a poor diet and will serve your health and well being poorly. The natural diet of fresh fruits and vegetables and whole grains are the sun’s energy stored for man’s consumption. Imagine the awesome amount of sun energy packed into an orange or apple. What a miracle. So, one action to be done with depression is to improve the diet. Learn why the Master Jeshua of Nazareth and many other spiritual masters fasted. Did you know the body cannot cleanse itself of the daily intake of pesticides, preservatives and other whatnot we put into the body unless the digestive processes from the mouth to the anus are at rest, meaning no food in the system? 'Tis true. Educare yourself. Study the art of natural foods and improve the diet. Fast the body so it may clean its systems. Eat the natural foods of the Mother Earth in their natural state. Exercise the body. Yoga is my favorite, yours may be Aikido, or other martial art or dance or other body art.

Depression is deemed a negative word; it is an uncomfortable condition for one who is in it. Here the word reveals to you how it is holding within itself, with its letters, all the truth that will last one eon, long enough for folks to experience all the depressions they want to experience and then, using the word itself, learn to rise to NO DEPRESSION. DEPRESSION IS DONE. The condition ceases, and so too shall the word. Of course, should the depressed person be listening to others who cannot understand the fact that the mind and the biology are married and affect each other, well, they will believe they need the doses in drugs or such. All bets are off on the word's effect if the person in depression is connected to a professional depression artist. Agreeing with them is a woeful thing. Be careful, they can be subtle.
Let us be silent, that we may hear the whispers of the gods.

... see see...
A learning exercise you can do is to realize DESIRES DIE. SEER SEE DESIRE DIES.

Make use of this fact by noticing some of your desires, and recognize their importance in life and so fan their fires, and with others not so important, or worse .. damaging to you .. let these DESIRES DIE. How do you do get a desire to die ? Not feed it. Give it no thought time. Give it no imagination time. When you see yoursElf giving attention to anything you chose to not create in your life, notice the fact that you noticed, and then go quiet for a moment and with a breath's exhale, generate a new thought upon a new subject near and dear to your heart.

While this will work on any level, work, money, mate and such, it works best on spiritual awarenesses centered in Love, for from this, all goodneses flow.
In all things it is better to hope than to despair.
-- Goethe (1749-1832)

CANON is an established principle. (Religions errantly identify their beliefs as canon’s.)
ESS is the female ESSence.
ESS is the feminine creative energy of All That Is.
ESS is the goddESS ESSence.
We are onenESS within onenESS.
NEON is a word for the light within. We are in the light. The light is in us.
(Used with poetic license.)
NOESIS is cognition, understanding.
NONCE refers to the present time, and for the time being. For the occasion.
SEI is pronounced say, and they are WHALES

SONE is sound. Pronounce it son, as in zone. sOne.
http://www.goodworksonearth.org/ascension.html < this link address just might be the most advanced version of ASCENSION, if it is different. We also have ASCENSION in Letters Let Seer See.
And now, I tell you true, I believe in miracles. Forgive me for appearing to become ‘religious.’
These are very brief, and will be further explained in Letters Let Seer See, very clearly.

A MIRACLE I CLAIM REAL CLEAR
A LAME MALE CLAIM MALICE ~ MALICE CLAIM A LAME MALE A CLEAR AIM I CLAIM CAME REAL
I AM A MIRACLE
I AM REAL

... and a bit more on both ...

I CLAIM ME !!!

Do the above two need a wee bit of explanation? The word miracle tells us to claim a lie real. The word believe tells us, I be, I live. One way I know to explain this is to refer to the master, Jeshua of Nazareth. He said when we pray (meditate), we should go into our closet, shut the door and pray to the Father in secret...and that which we pray for we are to believe it is ours already, and it shall be. We are told to believe we have it already...to live a lie. For Jeshua to claim he could heal the sick was a lie to the people of that time. (They believed no one could do these things and so the lie they believed prevented them from healing themselves and others.) And yet the master did it. And did Jeshua not claim a lie to all those who witnessed him turn water into wine? It was a lie to those folks for anyone to claim such things. Yet Jeshua knew the power of the Word, He was centered in Love and so claimed his lies real. Jeshua knew the power of the spoken word, and the powers of the belief systems of others. In the current belief system of those living in the time of Jeshua of Nazareth, it was a lie that anyone could do what Jeshua was doing. He claimed a lie, he believed it was his before he had it and he claimed the miracles real. And he also told us we would do what he has done and more. I believe the promise of these words, and in truth and Love I claim the power of these words. They work. I RECLAIM A MIRACLE REAL, I AM A MIRACLE CLAIMER. How is that for the ... and a bit more... !

Have you ever noticed in BELIEF is I BE, ELF I BE, I BE ELF, I BE LIEF. Lief means: "readily and willingly." I BE LIEF. I be ~ readily and willingly.

lief (leef) adv. liefer liefest 1. Readily; willingly: I would as lief go now as later.
adj. liefer liefest Archaic 1. Beloved; dear. 2. Ready or willing.

ORIGIN Old English lēof, dear, pleasant: of Germanic origin: related to leave and love.

Forest came to me very slowly. I would ask the trees to speak to me what the word forest could say. Each night I would look at the word, sometimes finding new words, sometimes re-arranging the words to say the messages in different ways. Eros is the God of Love in the languages. Our forests need a God and Goddess of Love. Personally, I think there should be an agreement, and perhaps a law, that no man or woman can cut down a tree that is older than they are. Period. End of subject. What kind of human will go up to a five hundred year old tree and, without even asking the tree’s permission, cut it down? A human who cannot hear his or her inner ear nor can they see with the inner eye. He or she has never heard a tree’s secrets with his or her inner ear. Many times the tree will give permission to be severed. Their reason is to move on, knowing the life substances it created as a tree will serve many. Trees especially Love the arts humans make from their created substance.

Less than ten percent of the entire Earth’s ancient forests are standing. (My understanding now in early 1998 is four percent of the ancients are still breathing and giving air and shelter to the worlds living creatures.) Good Works On Earth would like to see those of wealth of money or such lands contribute to entitle the trees on the land, living and breathing, and donate them to the planet, never to be logged by loggers. The United States papers of freedom are written on hemp paper. Hemp was a major industry in this country. It can be again as soon as the people realize that hemp can replace the trees we cut by virtue of our not having to cut trees to produce high quality wood, paper, clothing and many thousands of other products. Read up on this. Educare yourself. Any acre of hemp will out-grow any acre of forest everywhere. And it is harvestable twice every year in sunny places. Corporations whose profits are dependent upon hemp remaining outlawed are keeping this insanity in our laws.

Personally, I think every logger should be required to read and understand, or have read to them, The Secret Life of Plants, by Peter Tompkins and Christopher Bird. I read this book when I was a youngster and even then I understood what the loggers do not. They would learn the awareness of the plants exceeds their own, and they could possibly raise their own awareness enough to hear what the plants have to communicate. The five hundred year old trees (and the older and younger) have traveled the cosmos as the Earth has enspiraled the Sun and this growth is a record and a memory of that travel. Trees truly are the solar library and for any man or woman to cut an ancient tree is to not only cut the very skin of Earth, preventing her breathing process, it is also a destruction of an awareness. Hemp plants die naturally, every season. Their roots restore the earth body; their seeds and oils replenish the human body.

If the forest is ‘self-sustaining’ in its production of wood products, then why do the logging corporations still lust after the ancients still standing? The answer is greed and a deaf ear to the cosmos.

EGOS GO ~ EGOS LOSE ~ LOGGERS-R-LOSER ~ SORE LOSER LOSE ~ R LOGGERS SORE LOSER ?
LOGGERS GORE EROS ROSE ~ SO LOGGERS LOSE ROLES ~ SO EROS ROSE ~ SO SOL ROSE ~ SO ROSE EOS.
Learn a new trade, loggers. Refuse to destroy the breathing skin of Mother Earth for money. Please, be more creative than that. Put the logging trucks and machinery to rest. Sit in the ancient forest, if you can still find one, and ask what to do. The vision quest you seek will change your life for the better, forevermore. Be like the hunter who now only carries their camera to shoot the living animals of the Earth, and is grateful for the changed awareness he sees he is. Love is profound.

What a fortunate word! Ah, wonder of wonders! Look at why it is so ... RA. The All That Is. The Awareness of Awareness ~ CreatorCreatressCreation. Simply another word for God with a big G. Or the little g, She doesn't mind. One of my favorite definitions for God is : Plural for Goddess.

The Lexigram of FRIENDSHIPS is all-inclusive, with the version below being the HER version. Wherever HER or SHE shows, you can put in HE or HIS. As a side thought which shows truth, did you notice both HER and SHE contains HE? HE is within HER and within SHE. The Goddess word contains both the Goddess and the God, the Her contains the He, and the She contains He. The Woman contains the Man and within every Male is the Ma. The Female contains the Male, and the Ma, in the very center of Female. Bottom line is the big g god called Love is a Goddess. And She is in every female, and in every male. We are of the Goddess ~ ongoing in orgasmic Love.

People who live with HARMONY in their heart and soul do NO HARM to others or themselves. HARMONY is a vibrational awareness. HARMONY is a contribution to the vibrations of the universe in a Loving and caring way. You create HARMONY within you for all about you and you emanate this inner vibrational HARMONY to others near and far. By so doing, you attune to your source. Knowing and playing these harmonies you are a star in the eye of the universe, so well cared for and Loved by All That Is.

When you vision the best for self and others, you are in HARMONY with nature and creation shows herself to you for you can see her. This is not a difficult concept to understand. The living sea of awareness you swim in is of your creation and of your imaging. Do you swim in harmony or hatred?

HATRED

To you the reading awareness of awareness now holding this page I tell you true, I just now, on the nth re read for proofreading, said a quiet thank you to the universe and the Beings who assembled and cared for the word HATRED, so that it could carry the truth within itself, all while people are seeing only the outer meaning. I am quite happy I am not in charge of the word HATRED. A daunting task I feel certain. This word carries the truth that HATRED contains DEATH, and to use the EAR and to READ is a way out of HATRED. The way out of HATRED is to HEAR THE EAR ~ HEAR THE HEART ~ HEAR THE EARTH ~ HEAR THE HEART RATE.

Read Toning, The Creative Power of the Voice by, Laurel Elizabeth Keyes. In this small book she describes how the body knows how to heal the body with the sounds the body knows how to make. When you study and learn the Star Art of toning, you will find LANGUAGES AS SUNG ~ AS SANG ~ US USE LANGUAGES. There is great truth in the last sentence, I encourage you to be of the Love awareness and the truth of that sentence will ring out forevermore. (Hint: the body knows the sounds to make to heal the body when you tone. From this, you will find the body healing, protecting and relaxing the body with sound, in myriad ways. Truly enlightful and uplifting.)
Like virtually everything else in our universe, Light, too, is probably on an experiential journey. It can live in the effervescent fission of the stars or it can allow itself to be electronically recreated. It can be custodian of the dazzling truth or the steward of equally glittering deception.

This quote is from Harlan Margold in his article in the July 25, 1996 issue of Welcome To Planet Earth magazine. He identifies himself at the end of the article as an unlicensed metaphysician. I like that. Who is going to license someone who knows the workings of the universes? Kinda makes a drivers license a joke. “Light ... it is the custodian of the dazzling truth or the steward of equally glittering deception.” Wow, what a truth so beautifully written. The reason Harlan’s quote is on this page is it is a heresy for many to know that the light is what it is. The light harbours the truth and gives the lie the energy to exist. This would be both the interior and the exterior light. Your inner light, and the light in the physical such as the fiber optics which transfers information with the light. Love is Creation. Light is information.

OM

MOI ~ I OM

a sacred palindrome
This last word, OM, came to me after some weeks! Such a simple demonstration of the ability of the hidden meaning within a word that can be lexigrammed to hide itself. The one word that is best to begin meditation is within the word itself telling you the basic sound of the universe, a sound that readily brings calmness to body and thought, allowing you to experience for your self what is described as AT*ONE*MENT. This word, this sneaky little truth hiding there for weeks before I saw it, delighted me when it showed itsElf. I swear to you by all I know to be true I felt the word OM chuckle when I found OM showing itsElf. I certainly chuckled too.

Meditation is a word that I believe can be used for a long time as an awakener. Two unique ways to meditate are, with seed and without seed. With seed means to enter the state of still with one idea, one seed thought being carried with you to the place of no time. The seed idea can even be the concept of NO TIME which as the seed carried into the fertile grounds of the stillness, will sprout with your loving attention placed upon it while quiet. The sprout will reveal itsElf and will blossom with its meaning of how meditation can give us the truth of no time in the universe.

Carry into the still of the quiet the seed idea of NO NAME. Ponder your self with no name, as a being of infinite ability not limited by a name, or time, or a mind. There are a lot of limitations held by most folks with their minds. These minds are simply a picture of an idea. A belief in picture form. Change the picture, change the belief.

The point I wish to impress is the sheer volume of truth held within these Lexigrams. Each line can be a source of remembrance and awakening for you as a Spiritually Aware, Immortal Being, Art is a man's nature; nature is God's art.
- Alice Bailey (1816-1902)

Perhaps there is only one cardinal sin: impatience.

Messiah means Message, but to be effective it has to be received.
Barbara Hand Clow - The Pleiadian Agenda - page 128

What is the message in messiah? Linda Goodman lexigrammed MESSIAH a little bit in her book, Linda Goodman’s Star Signs. She showed the following: “The word MESSIAH contains the following ringing words, as a message to those whose Third Eyes are open to truth. “HE IS HIM ... HE IS SAME AS HIM ... HE IS SHE ... SHE IS HIM ... HE IS SAME AS ME ... I AM SAME AS HIM ... SHE IS SAME AS HIM.” Hm ... sounds like we are one.

reposal 1. The act of resting or the state of being at rest. 2. Freedom from worry; peace of mind. 3. Calmness; tranquillity.
Resolve has been the most powerful word in terms of changing my life for the better. Love powers the universe and so by seeing, speaking and acting in and from Love, all is well. Whenever I have a situation or problem to solve, I surround it with Love and act accordingly. Try it. You will see that it changes things in your life for the better forevermore. What else does RESOLVE reveal in its Lexigram?

Do you wish to resolve a problem? Look at the problem with and through Love in your mind’s eye and feel the Love with your heart ... feel like an elf in your sElf’s doings in flesh. The elf’s in us is in the letters of our flesh.

RESOLVE has been a most useful, revealing, relaxing and enlivening knowing. After finding this word and seeing the first three lines reveal themselves, I was astounded when much later LOVERS was a word I was lexigramming and I kept trying to put a second E into the word so I could get LOVERS RESOLVE, which LOVERS do do. The feeling came over me that the word LOVERS, despite being the word right in front of my eyes, was hiding from me somehow. True, I was not with a mate, and so no LOVER was a part of my life ... the feeling was not of not having a LOVER ... it was a feeling of the word LOVERS hiding from me a part of itsElf while the word was looking at me from in front of my face, both on the page, and in my thoughts. I told a friend I spoke to on the phone that I was working on a word, not telling the person it was LOVERS, and that the word kept trying to put in a second E on me several times. I blame the word, because the sense I 'ear with my inner ear and see with my inner eye in the revealings of the word felt by me, come from the sensing of the word I ponder with my still thought and quiet listening to the intuition. In other words, the word recognizes my pondering it and so responds with a feeling of sitting on my shoulder, looking over my work and offering a hint here, a correction there. Gleefully, joyfully and with a prankishness fit for a leprechaun the word itself hides some of the more glaringly obvious words and meanings within a word I am working on, just to enjoy teasing me, knowing I am not giving up and knowing I so enjoy the hunt. Om did it to me in Meditation.

Now, this word LOVERS was playing with me trying to put a letter where a letter was not. That second E would not be banished from the musings I pondered on LOVERS. Then the sneaky little LOVERS allowed itself to be seen in my mental visionings under the word RESOLVE ... and the universe rang out its cheers and applause, for you see, I had finished RESOLVE as a word months and months ago and LOVERS was not in the Lexigram. For the first time, by working on the word LOVERS, did I now see LOVERS is in the word, RESOLVE. LOVERS RESOLVE. SO, LOVERS RESOLVE LOSER OR LOVERS LOSE SORR LOSER. LOVERS LOVE. LOVERS SOLVE. There. Now! it seems finished. No more from me on this word, you can cancel the ... and a bit more ... . I so Love this word. See, speak and act in and from and with Love. Imagine it.

Depression causes addictions and addictions cause depression. Addicted, as a word, gives the addicted person a tool he or she can use that will show them easily and simply what addiction is and the solution to addiction.
Diet is nothing more than what goes into our bodies, from whatever source. The word also contains TEA. Makes me wonder if there is a tea that alleviates physical addiction. It appears there may be a natural plant called the Iboga plant which, with one use, alleviates addictions to hard drugs such as cocaine, heroin, alcohol and nicotine without the withdrawal. Eric Taub wrote of it in the April issue of Magical Blend magazine. As I write this in 1997 the food and drug administration still exists. This is the group that has allowed the medical companies to control health laws in the United States. This is the group that has allowed a poisonous drug source (cigarettes) made more poisonous by man’s chemical processes to be advertised and sold to men, women and children, legally. Now this same agency makes the plant which heals the addictions to the cash crop plants and processes, illegal. Healing plants are made illegal and unavailable to sovereign citizens in America. It will not even allow it to be tested. Combine that fact with the actuality that the agencies of the United States government have created and imported the mind altering drugs, unleashing them on the populace with ill intent. Using the cia or the fbi or the military to run the drugs into this country and at the same time profiting from the drug war which it created is unconscionable. And that is what it is. A created war, the creators being those who are in control of the laws (the lawyers we send to our governing bodies) and who seek to control the populace with their police agencies. There are fifty five thousand police agencies in the fifty United States in America and they currently are having a field day confiscating property from those associated with the illegal drugs.

In the beginning is the Word, prior to the word is the Breath and with the breath is the Still Quiet Love, Unformed in Heart and Unnamed in Sound – A Name Amen

: FOUR SACRED KEYS :

Uno : Be as the Gate Keeper at the Lips of Goddess letting nothing pass which does not honor such a one.
Dos : In the beginning is the Word, prior to the word is the Breath and with the breath is the Still Quiet Love, Unformed in Heart and Unnamed in Sound – Amen Name Tres : Be as the Gate Keeper at the Lips of God letting nothing pass which does not honor such a one.
Quatro : In the beginning is the Words Sword, and with the words sown are their Echoes and with these echoes is the Still Quiet Love ... Formed in Sound and Made Named Amen

I offer you another very short list that heals instantly, if you work it.

: FIVE KEYS TO HEALINGS :

1. Inhale with awareness of Love's gentleness.
2. Shine the heart light of Love's brightnesses.
3. Forgive all, including self, completely letting go.
4. Talk and walk with Divine gratefulness in your heart and thought, for all that you see and hear.
5. Be, and do all things graciously as you can know to do.

If #2, 3 or 4 are in any way difficult for you in the beginning ...

Now, treat yoursElf ... go sit in a sacred hot springs and breathe.
No hot springs nearby?
Sit in the center of the sun with your inner eye.
Anywhere you are, these four steps above are Divine Healings.
Easy as an inhale with awareness, and a shining of the heart light.

If you like this healing ... and you wish to have a few more that work stellar wonders we invite you to visit our Retreats Page and be creative in creating a retreat of your dreams.

I now share with you a quote from the book entitled, The Mother Tongue, by Bill Bryson - Page 75

“#3 Words Are Created : Often they spring seemingly from nowhere. Take dog. For centuries the word in English was hound (or hund). Then suddenly in the late Middle Ages, dog - a word etymologically unrelated to any other known word - displaced it. No one has any idea why.”
Greetings Dear Reader and Listeners too ... as you experience seeing these letters settle in ... relax in peace with me while I share the story of the creation of the dog and how she came to be and how she came to be named, out of the blue, as it were. There are similarities to this tale and others that folks will wag in front of your nose, demanding you believe their truth of how the dog came to be. Note well how much this dog story resembles other creation stories in this wonderful game we call Mother Earth Ascending, and yes, please note the differences.

The tale begins with an email I sent to our mailing list on Christmas Day of the year, Two Thousand One. Someone had sent me a story, and it was poorly written with no author’s name. No one knew who had written it. I asked for permissions of all those who were on the chain of sending that caused the story to arrive in my sight, and all said, we won’t mind if you change the gender, and we won’t mind if you make the story more true to the reality of creation evolving and how and why.

Subject: The Best God Named Dog Story Ever Edited. Date: October 2005
From: Will I Am : goodworksonearth.org

On the first day of creation, God created a small animal with a cold nose, a long tail and wet tongue. The tail and the tongue tickled Her to no ends. She sat pleased upon Her waters with this, among Her first creations. From this, all else followed.

On the second day of creation, God and her mirrored images and she all created man to play with the animal She adored so much, her first creation upon her waters. On the third day of her evolving and Loving creations, God created the animals of the earth to romp with the man and Her first creation. Late in the day, She created the horse, the elephants, the elephant whales, and the lynx to round out the mix, all the while the dolphins swam in the night's skies, and with the solar rays, dreaming animals. Birds flew. Fish swam. The turtles were now home on their island called Mother Earth.

On the fourth day, God and her co-creators in the images had by then created more stars than any one man or woman could count or see and so She and her each, all rested, silent with her breath exhaling her expansions. The man dreamed; the animal chased the dreams. All is well in all the universes. She inhales.

God yawned on the fifth day and She created the tennis ball so that the animal might or might not retrieve it.

On the sixth day, God and her co-creators and co-creatresses, along with the dog all romp and play and cocreate with her with their imaging awarenesses with Love's energies. With Her mind stuff, each and all cocreated eternity in infinite design. Goddess breathed with happiness always, for each co-creator and co-creatress created with Love, as designed. Their days of creation are eternal with Her Love, for Her Love is the source of the breathings of all about.

On the seventh day, Man tried to rest, but the animal with the cold nose wanted to go for a walk. Goddess Love had already made the earth and sky, the flowers and the trees, the animals, the fish, the birds, and bees, and when She was finished, not one image was quite the same. She felt it was all very good, so She created the hot bath, some candles and the fine wines as she relaxes. Goddess/God/Love, aka Creator/Creatress, aummed Her Oms and she felt it was nice. The next day Goddess spoke anew, "I'll walk this world of mine with man and give to man, of each creation dreamed, a name to speak so he can know the animals, arts, trees and stars within."

And so She traveled far and wide, and everywhere She went, Her first animal created followed her in Her everywherE, hearing the names She thought, and man spoke. Her words, her letters, were of her own design.

When all were named upon the earth and in the sky and sea, the little creature said, after hearing all of Goddess’ sounds, "Dear Master, there's no name left for me.” Kindly She leaned over and touched the animal's nose, saying; "As man was among the first to be named, though not the first creation, I've left your name to be sounded by my breath to the end, my friend. I have held this name in my dreamings ever since I created you in first images with my other sElfs as women. I honor you my faithful creation, with my name. I have turned My Own Name back to front, calling you, DOG, my friend.” And in the distance She and her hound heard a sound ... a woman on earth calling out her hound's name; "Come here God Dog, come here girl, I've got a tennis ball!"
The corporate greeds and uncarings in Americans are killing Mother Earth’s very breath. Who taught them this competitive killing way with weapons so dear to the false prophet’s hunters’ hearts to so chase false profits? Willing to kill with chemicals and drugs and false knowledges of man with weapons now being the enforcements upon the lies. The asphalts alone are choking Mother Earth, and then add the concretes and the destroyed forests and you will see Mother Earth can barely breathe in many places. Why have teachers allowed our children to grow to our adults so competitively uncaring as to their children? Costs wise, we can barely rent a home in the town we are prosecuting at this time, and we in America are living the real estate bubble of America’s false profits as provided by Chinese 'savings' still at this time, and it is huge, folks, we are in debt to our kazoos almost all racing to make the buck to keep the 'life of ease' going, damning the airs and waters.

Let me share with you now, a key to the healings of these and many other killing thoughts, words and deeds of destructions upon our living airs, dirts and waters. The answers are revealed from within the TEACHERS themselves.

Historical Sharings:

Beginning of a project: Assemble all the dna/gene names, phrases and wording that are similar to our letters researches and how we have named what we have found to be of use in research:

genetic sentences: larger chemical structures made from genetic alphabets, also called words book: in this example of genomics, the book is the human genome letters: in the example of genomics, the letters are nucleotides, four different chemical units arranged in pairs - called base pairs - and linked in chains. Specific sequences of base pairs are called genes, the words in the analogy. See: words words: in genomics, specific sequences of base pairs are called genes, the letters in the analogy. See: letters genes: if genes are software, then proteins are hardware - the meat in the machine. . : 20060628 Wired Apr05pg30

book of life: name of the dna draft showing all 3.1 billion base pairs: actual name is: Book of Life book of life: dna draft showing all 3.1 billion base pairs: actual name used: verified

proofreader: the person who is a final keeper of precision in finding errors in written work, and in DNA replication

proofreaders: used as a term describing the finders of errors in written work and in DNA replication

In June 2006, someone found Good Works On Earth on the net while searching for, educational ability test. We have no answer for this query at Good Works On Earth beyond this: http://www.goodworksonearth.org/axiomsom.html These would be the first testings for those testing others. On that web page we have freely shared the following:

Leviathan ... Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear ...
Will he speak soft words unto thee? - Job : 41

There is a story told of the Hopi Prophecies describing how white man would be like locusts and destroy their way of life ... it was said that the Hopi Elders gave prophecy of how those who were losing their lives in all the tribes across the lands would return as children of the white man and awaken him to his grievous ways and that those children would carry the energetic vibrations of the sacred names of the Hopi's and would be known as Hippies.
